

Ruaha National Park

Day 1: Dar es Salaam to Iringa

Pick-up from the hotel/resident house in Dar es Salaam and drive to Iringa town (it takes 8 hours' drive) with lunch on route. Dinner and overnight stay at the lodge.

Day 2: Iringa to Ruaha National Park

Breakfast, then departure for Ruaha National Park, followed by lunch upon arrival. Afterwards, a game drive until late sunset. Dinner and overnight stay at the campsite or in bandas.

Day 3: Ruaha National Park

Early morning game drive, beginning at sunrise, until breakfast, followed by a drive through different habitats with various animals, birds and scenery. Lunch in the bush, then an afternoon game drive until sunset, before dinner back at the campsite.

Day 4: Ruaha National Park

Breakfast in the camp, drive along the great Ruaha River until lunch time at the camp or bandas. Relaxation time, then a late afternoon game viewing for sunset, before heading back for dinner.

Extra Information

The point of departure for the safari can be either Dar es Salaam or Iringa town.

You can visit traditional places such as Masai bamas and historical sites like Isimila Stone Age site and natural pillars.

This safari can be combined with Mikumi National Park and/or Udzungwa Mountains National Park for an additional 2-3 days.

Our price includes:

Full briefing before your trip

Parks entrance fees

Full accommodation

3 meals per day

Water

Lunch box during transfer to the next park

Guide/driver and cook fees

Airport transfer to your hotel

Our price does NOT include the following:

Local and international flights

Visas

Travel insurance
Alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages
Personal medical items
Additional food
Additional personal equipment
Gratuities*